

American Sports & Entertainment Centers Acquires Raleigh Iceplex Ice Skating Facility

-Partners with Ammons Ventures on New Facility

Raleigh, NC December 15, 2017 – American Skating Entertainment Centers, LLC, (“ASEC”) is proud to announce the acquisition of the Raleigh Iceplex (“Iceplex”) ice skating facility. The Iceplex is centrally located in north Raleigh and is home to youth and adult hockey leagues, a renowned figure skating program, and a popular year-round day camp.

“We are excited to acquire the Iceplex, and we look forward to quickly making significant operational improvements to upgrade its level of customer service and sustainability for our figure skaters, hockey players, and their families,” said Mike Baxter ASEC’s Regional Manager. “We are equally excited to partner with Jeff Ammons again, meet and service new customers, and enhance our relationship with existing ones.”

“We believe that this is a great opportunity for our customers, coaches, employees, and partners. Under ASEC’s leadership, best-in-class customer service, and operating standards, we are confident that we can take Iceplex to the next level and ensure its future viability. The Iceplex acquisition further demonstrates our commitment to the Triangle Region and will complement our successful RCI, Sports Factory, Cary Polar Ice House, Garner Polar Ice House, and MVP Sports facilities allowing us to continue to provide the best sports and recreation experiences for the residents of the greater Raleigh metropolitan area.”

To learn more about the Iceplex, please visit iceplex.com or call Cindy Murphy, General Manager, at (919) 878-9002

About ASEC:

Founded in 2006, ASEC is the largest owner/operator of ice skating and indoor sports facilities in the United States. ASEC owns and/or operates 21 facilities in New York, North Carolina, Georgia, Texas, Arizona, and California, including the iconic Toyota Sports Center in Los Angeles, which is home to the LA Kings, and the Los Angeles Lakers' new, state-of-the-art practice facility in El Segundo, CA.